

The Results of Surveys and interviews with students

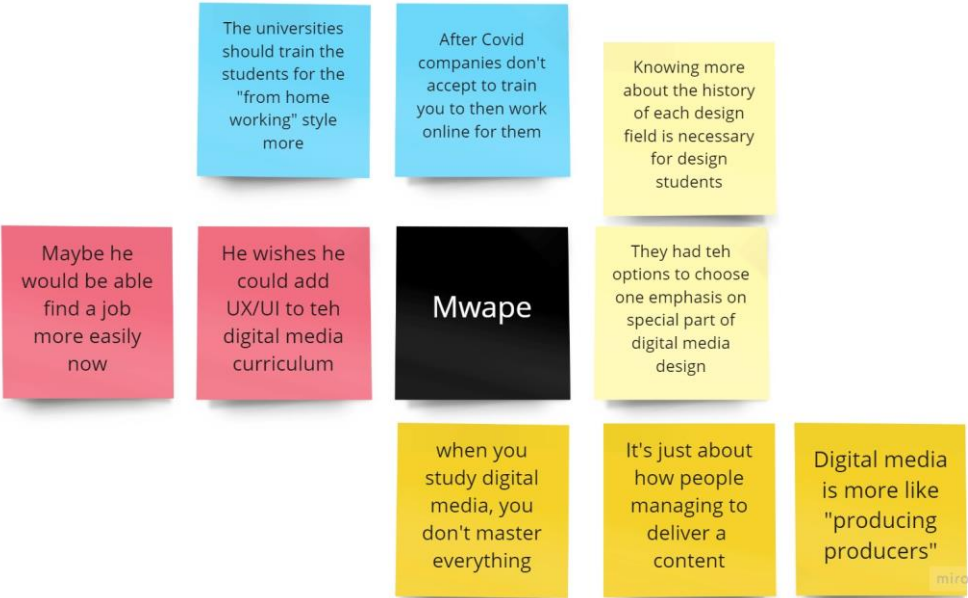

miro

miro

+The teachers spend time to give feedback and teach techniques individually to teh students.

+ You can feel free to do the projects with any software or even like drawing on the paper

She wishes there were brochures to help the students know more about which material is found on which portal

- On the website there was a plenty of portal, so it was confusing during first semester

- The pace of the teaching in german for an international student like her was too fast

- The first week was a painful challenge

I wish there was a way to know if I as a first semester student choose one special part of this field, which kind of job I will get.

